Chris, welcome back, trust you enjoyed your vacation.

Cheryl, the latest version of the agreement attached to this e-mail has some significant changes since we last spoke earlier today. I wanted to flag them to you both, take a look at this on Monday and get back to me when you can with any further comments or concerns.

First, most of your editorial comments have been incorporated, we have made a few of our own, you will probably want to take a read of the entire piece.

Finally, it would be helpful in my briefing at this end if you could give me a signal on your cost recovery options once you have had time to look over the numbers that I provided Cheryl with yesterday night.

Realize that some of the points that I have raised above will require some additional thinking and discussion at your end, call me if you have any questions or wish to discuss these points in greater detail.
